

ANDREW CARNEGIE TO GIVE $30,000

PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR JANESVILLE

City Must Furnish Site and Guarantee $3,000 Per Year.

COUNCIL WILL AGREE

Welcome News is Received This Morning by Messrs. Fifield and Galbraith.

NOW TO SELECT THE SITE

Andrew Carnegie gives Janesville $30,000 for a public library building. His decision was reached last Wednesday, March 6, and the official announcement was received by Judge Charles L. Fifield of the public library board this morning.

Alexander Galbraith also received a notification of the gift from A. M. Stewart, proprietor and editor of the Scottish-American whose interest has been aroused. The letter to Mr. Fifield is from Mr. Carnegie's private secretary.

Letters That Brought the News.
Copies of both of the documents which brought the glad news are published in full on this page. Reference to the one which comes direct from Mr. Carnegie shows that the only provision which is required of the city is the provision of a suitable site and the passing of an ordinance by the common council making permanent the annual tax of $3,000 for the support of the library.

Requirements Will Be Met.

There can be no possible doubt of the requirements being met. The people of Janesville are only too delighted at the great privilege which has come to them of sharing in the bounty of the great philanthropist. Business men who are in close touch with both the library and municipal affairs said today that the people would gladly submit to a larger tax than the $3,000 should it be necessary for the support of such a building as will grace the city before long.

Public Spirited Citizens.

Janesville is indeed fortunate in securing the gift and has to thank, next to Mr. Carnegie's generosity, the energetic efforts of several public spirited citizens and the wisdom which they showed in reaching the man who has proved the city's benefactor. In the minds of many people there lay dormant the half hearted wish that someone would approach Mr. Carnegie and ask for the library. When the Gazette crystallized this sentiment and urged that the effort be made there were those who laughed at the idea and were not slow in openly ridiculing the movement, claiming that it was foolishly useless and that nothing would ever come of it. Nothing would have come of it had it depended upon these weak-kneed "knockers" but fortunately there were those who accepted the impetus given to them by the Gazette's agitation and who gave their ready support to the movement.

Gazette Started Activity.

The Gazette's article started activities, not in one line alone, but in many, and it is largely due to this concerted action that success is now due. The many influences brought to bear upon Mr. Carnegie endorsed each other so harmoniously that it seemed like a very practical fulfillment of the Scriptural assurance that all things work together for good.

Most powerful of all in securing Mr. Carnegie's favorable attention was the weight of a personal influence which Hon. Ogden H. Fethers was able to enlist in his behalf during his recent visit in New York, an account of which has previously appeared in

LETTERS THAT BROUGHT THE NEWS.

Office of Andrew Carnegie, 5 West 51 St., New York City.

Judge Fifield, Janesville, Wis:
Dear Sir—Yours of February 19th, received. If the city of Janesville will furnish a suitable site and agree by ordinance of council to tax itself to the extent of $3,000 a year for the support of the library, Mr. Carnegie will be glad to give $80,000 for a free library building. Respectfully,

JAMES BERTRAM,
Private Secretary.

Office of the Scottish American,
No 33 Rose St., P. O. Box 2955,
New York, March 7, 1901.

To Alexander Galbraith, President of Rock County Caledonian Society, Janesville, Wis:

Dear Sir—You will be pleased to learn that Janesville is to receive a public library from Mr. Andrew Carnegie. The matter was decided yesterday; and as you wrote to me regarding it, first of all I will give you the information with pleasure.

Mr. Carnegie being only able to consider about one in five of the appeals made to him, you will understand that Janesville has been fortunate in getting the gift.

I had an opportunity to speak to Mr. Carnegie's private secretary relative to Janesville, and when Judge Fifield's appeal came, it was sent to me for consideration. What I added to it may have had something to do with Mr. Carnegie's decision, and if so, I am very glad to have been able to help you and your friends. With great respect I am

Yours very truly,
A. M. STEWART.

the columns of the Gazette.

Mr. Fethers has in his possession papers which gave him personal assurance of Mr. Carnegie's intention to grant his request for Janesville.

Judge Fifield Wrote.
Other powerful means to the great end were brought to bear however. On February 19, Judge Charles L. Fifield wrote to Mr. Carnegie giving him a frank statement of the city's need of a new building. He placed before the philanthropist the history of the library's growth against disadvantages and told him of the present inadequate quarters in which it is cramped out, it would be impossible to save a volume.

He laid emphasis on the manufacturing interests of the city and guaranteed a yearly appropriation from the city of $3,000. Judge Fifield further stated that he thought the council could be induced to raise the appropriation to $3,500 if necessary and that he was sure that the sum necessary for the building site could be raised among the citizens.

The history of the steady growth of the library and the establishment of the children's room together with the support which has been given it by the city doubtless was a potent factor in securing Mr. Carnegie's approval.

Caledonian Society Work.

The Rock County Caledonian society also had a part by no means insignificant in the good work. Alex. Galbraith and Secretary James Mills were interested from the start and Mr. Galbraith wrote Mr. Stewart of the Scottish-American to ask his advice as to the best way of approaching Mr. Carnegie. Mr. Stewart, who is a personal friend of Mr. Galbraith, replied that he would be glad to place the matter personally before Mr. Carnegie but that he had already secured one library and that he did not like to ask for another. He advised Mr. Galbraith to write direct to Mr. Carnegie and promised his endorsement. When Mr. Galbraith received this letter Mr. Fethers had already succeeded in reaching Mr. Carnegie so Mr. Galbraith did nothing further. That the interest which he awakened had its effect, however, and that his friend was able to do something towards securing the library for Janesville is evidenced by Mr. Stewart's letter.

Knew Mr. Carnegie.
In this city also there is a lady who for many years enjoyed the personal friendship of Mr. Carnegie. This lady is Mrs. Logan, mother of Mrs. Stanley B. Smith. Her sister's husband was for a long time in partnership with Mr. Carnegie, who boarded at their home. Mrs. Logan knew him very well and she wrote to him in the interests of Janesville. A nephew of hers, who is one of Mr. Carnegie's trusted employees, has also been using his influence. Mayor V. P. Richardson and others have also taken a part in the work.

Mr. Carnegie's gift together with the bequest of $10,000 from the late F. S. Eldred places $40,000 at the city's disposal for the building. There have been some fears expressed that the two gifts could not be used together, but there seems to be no ground for any such thought. Mr. Carnegie is too broad minded to restrict his gift in any manner beyond giving it the reasonable protection which any business man would require.

He does not stipulate that the building shall be fire proof and that it shall be used purely as a library and in the interests of education and culture. In no instance will he permit a library towards which he has contributed to be connected with a city hall. But it is not reasonable to suppose that a man who is giving away millions of dollars for the mental and moral betterment of his fellows would stand in the way of his own endeavor by stipulating that only his money shall go into the building and that no name save his shall receive any credit.

Build a Corner for Eldred.

On the other hand those who knew F. S. Eldred and his philanthropic interest in church and educational movements could never doubt his pure benevolence. Mrs. Eldred, said this morning, that Mr. Eldred before his death expressed the hope that Mr. Carnegie would give Janesville a library building. When asked what he would like done with his bequest he said: "Build a little corner for me and be sure that it is a memorial for my daughter." Mrs. Eldred gave him her promise that she would guard the bequest and see that something permanent and definite was done with it.

The bequest will not be turned into the general fund. It would please Mrs. Eldred in that she thinks it would best meet her deceased husband's desires, if his bequest were used for building a children's room to be known as the Adah Eldred-Sayre memorial. Mrs. Eldred will guard the money as a sacred trust and see that it goes as far as possible. All she asks is that it be used judiciously and for a definite room or department, and, as before stated, the children's room is her preference.

ATTEMPT TO DUPE SENATOR.

Merchant Held for Trying to Blackmail Senator Kearns.

Omaha, Neb., March 9.—Ernest J. Wolter, a merchant of Schuyler, Neb., who was arrested in that city by a United States marshal on a charge of attempting to blackmail United Senator Kearns this afternoon. He waived preliminary hearing and was held to the Federal grand jury under $2,000 bonds. There were three letters written in connection with attempted blackmail. The first, Feb. 19, was addressed to the newly elected Senator at Salt Lake. It spoke of the Senator's success in life and newly acquired happiness and of the writer's need of money. It made a demand for $5,000, and went into considerable detail in directing how the money should be sent. It was specified that it must be in $20 bills, and that Kearns must get a bundle of books and magazines and put the money between the leaves. It was further directed that one corner of the bundle must be torn open, so that the postoffice officials could see that it contained books and would not open it. It was threatened that if this was not done the writer would take Kearns' life, and that he and the writer would go to eternity together. The writer said he cared nothing about life unless he could have the money, and he directed that the amount be sent to box 484, Schuyler, Neb.

FIGHT IS BREWING ON PRIMARY LAW

Friends of the Measure Will Block All Other Business.

SEEK TO COMPROMISE

Railway Taxation the Absorbing Topic at Madison the Past Week.

APPORTIONMENT NUT IS HARD

Madison, Wis., March 9.—The primary election bill has been relegated to the background this week so far as any action by the legislative committee on elections is concerned, though it has not ceased to be a principal topic of discussion in the corridors of the capitol. Report credits the friends of the bill with a determination to block all other important measures until the bill is passed, and the manner in which several important bills have been laid over to the future gives color to the report.

The assembly committee on privileges and elections will meet on Monday evening and it is expected that Mr. Stevens will then have a new bill with several changes from the original draft. What these changes will be is guesswork to those not on the inside, but it is not believed that they will be so marked as to meet the demand of some of the opponents that the convention be retained, and that the primary shall apply only to county and city elections and the choosing of delegates.

Riordan Has a Bill

The senate committee which sat in joint session with the assembly committee during the public hearings, will also meet next week, on Wednesday afternoon, to receive amendments and suggestions. It will probably await the action of the assembly committee, however, before making a report.

Senator Riordan is credited with having a primary election bill up his sleeve which may prove to be the bill which the stalwarts are willing to have passed. He declines to talk about it, and says that he has no bill, but admits that he has been corresponding with people in his district on the subject of primary elections, and that he may have something to offer in the near future.

Railway Taxation.

Railway taxation has been the absorbing subject in the legislature this week. Every day since and including Tuesday the senate and assembly committees on assessment and collection of taxes have sat in joint sessions hearing arguments on the bills prepared by the senate tax commission, one of which provides an ad valorem tax system, the other an increase in the present license fees. Either one, it is said, means an increase of about $600,000 in the taxes on railroads in the state.

All of the leading roads doing business in the state have been represented by leading attorneys, all of whom protested strongly against the ad valorem or property valuation system, especially when based on stock and bond values as shown by market prices and all of whom insisted that the railroads are already paying their full share of taxes. Gov. La Follette's message, in which he said that the railroads are paying a fair proportionate tax than is personal property, was freely quoted by the

PEACE OF WORLD THREATENED BY RUSSIAN DESIGNS ON MANCHURIA

United States and England Will Block Aggression of the Czar—The Bear Must Back Down or Fight is the Ultimatum.

London, March 9.—The peace of the world is gravely threatened by Russian designs upon Manchuria.

Lord Lansdowne, British secretary of state for foreign affairs, has torn the mask from the czar's thinly veiled designs of land grabbing, and in his uncompromising protests has the active co-operation of the United States. Anglo-American protestations couched in the strongest terms possible to diplomacy are now being made at all the courts of Europe, as well as at Tokio, though the assistance of Japan has been counted upon in advance.

Premier Salisbury's stern declaration of Great Britain's policy in the Orient—"that the territorial integrity of China must be preserved at all hazards"—will be adhered to at whatever cost.

Downing street gives credit to Lord Lansdowne for taking the initiative, but the truth apparently is that Great Britain and the United States have been taking simultaneous steps for justice which are now assuming concurrent form.

Count Lamsdorff, spokesman for the czar on Russia's foreign policies, is now the man of the hour. Either Russia must publicly recede from her attitude on Manchuria, or the concert of the powers will be broken. If the latter, the gravest consequences are feared by the diplomats.

Protection for or partition of China is now the issue sharply and definitely placed before the world.

BANDITS TERRORIZE A KANSAS TOWN

Two Highwaymen with Winchester Rifles Hold Up a Village—A Dozen Persons Robbed.

Emporia, Kan., March 9.—One of the most daring hold-ups that has ever been attempted in this part of the country was successfully carried out last night in the village of Olpe. Two highwaymen, armed with Winchester rifles, and one of them masked, practically took possession of the town, and when they finally said good-by to a dozen terrified citizens at the edge of town, and disappeared into the darkness, they carried with them what they had taken from two stores and everybody with whom they came in contact. The men first entered the store of Young & Delboit, where, besides the two proprietors, four customers were robbed

They marched the six victims before them to the general store of S. A. Sternbenz, where two other men were relieved of some checks and what money they carried. The eight men, with four others who had gathered in the street, were marched ahead of the highwaymen to a bridge at the edge of town. There the highwaymen, with leveled guns, compelled the dozen citizens to go back to town, while they made their escape. The haul consisted of a small amount of money, several shotguns and a quantity of jewelry. Sheriff O'Connor of Emporia was notified, and arrested a man who is believed to be one of the robbers.

OFFER FARMS TO 10,000 SETTLERS

United States Will Open 3,000,000 Acres of Rich Tract of Indian Land for Settlement

Washington, March 9.—Unless there is a change in the plans of the United States government over 3,000,000 acres of fertile land will be opened to settlement next summer adjoining the Oklahoma country. The lands heretofore have been known as the Kiowa, Comanche, and Apache reservations and comprise some of the richest territory of the Indian country. The tract lies between southwestern Oklahoma, the Indian Territory proper, and Texas. Efforts have been made for the last ten years to open the lands for settlement and the government only recently has reached an agreement with the Indian owners. The opening will give American home seekers their last opportunity to select homes from a large body of government lands. For years the lands have been almost uncultivated, their owners being content to eke out their existence from a few acres, while large bodies have been leased to cattlemen and the remainder of the fertile lands have been unoccupied. Ever since the opening and settlement of Oklahoma pressure has been brought to bear on the government to purchase the Kiowa-Comanche country and open it up to settlement.

The officials of the general land office expect that the lands will be opened to settlement about August 1 of this year. By the terms of the act of congress opening this vast region, six months from June sixth last are allowed in which to make allotments, and the surplus lands must be opened within six months thereafter by proclamation of the president. The date has not yet been fixed, but there is little doubt that the official proclamation will be issued some time in the near future.

LOT OF MONEY IN IT FOR THE FARMERS

Canning Factory in Operation Will Enable Them to Turn Many an Extra Dollar.

The farmers can show their good will to the city of Janesville and also help themselves to make money by making contracts with the canning factory, to raise a certain amount of the truck required to run the factory in its operating season. There is no question but that this industry is a solid one financially, and the question of their coming to Janesville is settled if they can get the acreage they desire. Most of the farmers who have looked into the matter are satisfied that they can make money raising truck at the prices offered. They are not acquainted with the financial standing of the institution, and the merchants of the town should use every means to satisfy them that these gentlemen are abundantly able to carry out any contract they may make.

It was the intention of Mr. Susemehl, the representative of the factory to start in today riding the country and calling on the farmers. In this way he is able to create more interest in the factory, and can get them to make contracts for a sufficient number of acres to operate the plant during the coming season.

This plant means an investment of from sixty to seventy-five thousand dollars on the part of the promoters and they want to feel sure that when they get this money invested they will have the goods ready with which to operate the plant.

Every man has friends, and if each one helps the plan along with his neighbor there will be no danger but that the factory will have plenty of produce to work on during the canning season. After this year they say there will be no trouble getting produce as the farmers will see it is a good thing and take hold of it.

railway attorneys in their arguments. Judge Gilson and Geo. Curtis of the tax commission met this argument by showing that railroad property is as tangible as real estate or the property of manufacturing concerns, and its proportion of taxes should be compared with these, and not with personal property, which is largely hidden.

Railway Commission Bill.

Next to the taxation bills the measure which has attracted most attention this week was the Hall bill providing for a railway commission with authority to fix rates. Several manufacturers from different parts of the state have been here to argue before the assembly committee on railroads against the bill, and protests against it come in from the same source every day. Their special protest is against the abrogation of the commodity rate. Mr. Hall offers to have this provision stricken out of the bill, but the railway attorneys insist that this should make no difference, as they would not be able to give commodity rate if the other rates are as fixed by the bill.

Fight Over Assembly Districts.

The settlement of assembly districts by the committee on apportionment is not final, if the threats of some of the dissatisfied members are carried out. Mr. Spratt whose county, Sheboygan, is reduced from three to two assemblymen, says that not only will he carry his fight onto the floor of the assembly, but if defeated there he will take it into the courts. The majority of the committee do not believe that there will be any change in the map, and are laboring with Mr. Spratt to have him withdraw his opposition.

Assemblyman Rossman's racing bill which permits the selling of pools to ten days at one meet, and then only on harness races, has a chance of passage through the majority of the committee on agriculture which has it in charge is likely to report against it.

The Woodward marriage bill, which requires the approval of physicians before loving couples can wed, has dropped out of sight and from the present outlook is likely to die in the committee. One hearing was appointed on it soon after its introduction, but its author failed to defend his measure and the committee box will probably be its burial casket.

Fight on Osteopathy Bill.

The osteopathy bill is still in the hands of the senate committee on public health and sanitation, but it is said that it will come out next week with an unfavorable report, and if this fails a strong effort will be made to have it sent to the judiciary committee, which would give it a favorable report and if this fails a strong fight will be made for it on the floor.

A report is expected from the senate judiciary committee this week on the anti-cigarette bill, for the passage of which Rev. Colestock prayed in the assembly Thursday. The judiciary committee is likely to report the bill favorably, by a majority vote, but it is likely to be defeated in the senate by a close vote.

Order For Valentine's School.

Valentine's School of Telegraphy this morning received an order by telegraph from Chas. F. Rensigle, general superintendent of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, asking them to send him four good men at once for work in their offices in Colorado. The school has the men in hand and they were started for their western homes this morning on the 10:10 train. Of late there has been an increasing demand for operators and Valentine's school has had hard work to fill their orders for operators.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The story of "Prince Otto," which Mr. Otis Skinner is to produce at the Myers Grand March 12, one night only, is Mr. Skinner's own free adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's novel bearing the same name. The same excellent cast as presented this play during its New York engagement will be brought here and includes: Miss Grace Filkins, Miss Maud Durbin, Miss Florence Smythe, Mr. George Nash, Mr. Frank Sylvester, Mr. Eugene Ehrle, Mr. Alfred Edwards, and some twenty-five others.

The first big comic opera novelty of the season here will be the latest and greatest New York Casino success, "The Rounders," with Comedian Thomas Q. Seabrooke and the original New York production intact.

BERTHA WALTZINGER.

One night, Wednesday, March 14, at the Myers Grand, is the limit of the engagement. The piece is said to offer Seabrooke the best opportunities of his career since his phenomenal success in "The Isle of Champagne," the piece that made him wealthy and famous.

Frank Keenan, in Sol Smith Russell's great play "A Poor Relation," appeared at the Myers Grand last night before a fair audience. As an imitator of Mr. Russell Mr. Keenan has no equal. If any fault can be found with him it is that he strains and exaggerates the physical and mental traits, to such an extent that until they assume the character of burlesque. That was not Mr. Russell's original idea of the character. However, the changed idea, was well acted and was warmly received by the audience.

MOTHER AND CHILD

Let the mother take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil for the two; it is almost never superfluous.

One can eat for two; but nourishing two is a different thing; it implies a degree of interior strength not often found in woman of either extreme.

Luxurious people are not very strong by habit, and overworked people are weak from exhaustion in some of their functions. Between the two is the happy mean; but how many women have plenty of life for two?

The emulsion is almost never superfluous.

We'll send you a little to try if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York

Our Vinol is the Remedy for all Pulmonary Affections

Vinol is a preparation that is delicious to take.

It consists of a delicate table wine in which has been dissolved the active curative principles that are found in the liver of the live cod, and to which cod-liver oil owes its reputation as a remedy for coughs, colds and all wasting diseases.

If there is any one who has a cough, a tendency to take cold easily, or a dread of consumption, we would like to have them call and permit us to explain what we know about Vinol and why we believe it will cure all such troubles more surely and quickly than any other remedy ever given to the public.

Following is a letter which has just come to hand and which shows how beneficially Vinol acted in one instance:

"I had a severe cough of long standing. I was advised by friends to give your Vinol a trial, which I did. Before taking it I had tried many other remedies for coughs without obtaining any relief. With Vinol it was different. I have now used four bottles of it, and am pleased to say my cough has almost entirely left me. I have been decidedly benefited by its use in every way. Very truly yours, W. E. SMALL, Boston, Mass.

Vinol acts beneficially upon the digestive organs, enabling them to obtain for themselves the elements from which are made firm healthy flesh tissue, sound muscle, strong bone structure and pure blood.

We recommend Vinol unreservedly. If you will call on us at our store, we will tell you why we have such faith in this new wine of cod-liver oil.

We guarantee that if you suffer from any symptoms that indicate troubles for which we know Vinol is intended, we will refund to you your money if you don't find Vinol helps you.

SPRING MEDICINE

The thing most desired of a Spring Medicine is thorough purification of the blood. With this work of cleansing going on there is complete renovation of every part of your system. Not only is the corrupt blood made fresh, bright and lively, but the stomach also responds in better digestion, its readiness for food at proper times gives sharp appetite, the kidneys and liver properly perform their allotted functions, and there is, in short, new brain, nerve, mental and digestive strength. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the peculiar qualities—peculiar to itself—which accomplish these good things for all who take it.

An unlimited list of wonderful cures proves its merit. The following is as good as a thousand. Its clear, positive statements, and the high character of the man who gives it, must convince every one of the value and merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Rev. C. V. Arnold is one of the most widely known clergymen in the Methodist denomination. For 52 years he has been preaching, and he is now enjoying a well earned rest in his pleasant home at 208 Vestal avenue, Binghamton, N. Y. Read his letter:

"Binghamton, N. Y., Dec. 10, 1899

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

"Gentlemen: I can most heartily recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla.

When living in Nebraska I broke down with a fever. Sores or boils broke out on me from ribs down to my feet. Physicians treated me, and the gatherings were opened, discharging large quantities of matter.

Blood Poison

followed and I was in a terrible state. I soon returned East, as a great epidemic of fever in that country laid very many low. I called old physicians but did not pick up under the syrups and medicines which they prescribed.

By recommendation I was led to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I bought three bottles and they benefited me. Instead of continuing I called another doctor who for a spell treated me. By this time the humor had developed into two

Scrofula Sores

Of the worst kind. Although not deep eating or discharging profusely, they laid open the flesh in one raw mass. My last physician, a friend from boyhood, prescribed and advised that I

Go Back to Hood's

when his medicine had been taken.

So again I bought a half dozen

Hood's and continued with it until

I was cured. I must have used two or three dozen bottles. It cured me perfectly and I have not had a symptom of scrofula since.

"I think highly of Hood's Pills;

always carry them in my vest pocket. I use them whenever I feel a little disturbed in my stomach when my food don't digest just right. They are splendid, and I never am troubled with a headache.

I can truly state that I have found your medicines to be good, and am pleased to recommend them.

"Sincerely yours, C. V. ARNOLD."

After reading the above letter, you must believe that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good medicine. Try it this spring. You need it. Buy a bottle to-day. You can get it of any druggist. Remember, Hood's is the only kind which is Peculiar to Itself.

Beauty is Health.

Walnut Lake, Ark., June 8, 1900.

I thank you for the benefit I received from your advice and the Wine of Cardui I took in my terrible condition. My life was no pleasure to me at all and I was of no use to anybody. After receiving your advice and medicine I commenced taking it and began immediately to improve. The pains left me and the menses, which came at the correct time, continued three days. I have gained strength and my weight has increased. My husband says the medicine has made me better looking than ever before.

Mrs. LIZZIE MANNELL.

Womanly health means bright eyes, rosy cheeks, clear complexion and elasticity of form. This is the youth unmeasured by years—the beauty of perfect womanhood. Beautiful women are happier and get more out of life than their sisters whose faces indicate suffering. Wine of Cardui made Mrs. Mannell "better looking" and infinitely happier because it cured her of those terrible pains. But she is no exception.

WINE OF CARDUI

is giving thousands of women health, beauty and freedom from the dragging pains which made their lives so miserable. Wan faces, haggard eyes and emaciated forms are the results of suffering. What suffering can compare with the torture of irregular menstruation, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb! Beauty flees quickly before the ravages of such disease. The sharp pains of falling of the womb deepen the crow tracks in the face. Menstrual irregularities rob the eye of its fire and the complexion of its transparency. Leucorrhoea drains the body of its strength, but Wine of Cardui restores the natural beauty, brightens the eye, clears the complexion, rounds out the figure and brings back the vigor of health. THE TWO VOICES.

Johnie was standing at the gate one bright evening in June. With one hand on the latch and absorbed in thought, he was busily engaged in carrying on a conversation with himself. Step behind the lilac bush and listen.

"Well, what's the use? I'm old enough to know what I want and I'm going just the same."

"But you know what your mother said. Hadn't you better mind your mother?"

"Oh, hang mother. I can't always be tied up at home just to please mother."

"Yes, but mother knows best, and she said when she went away that she wanted her boy to always do right."

"Of course I want to do right, but a boy must have some freedom," and then as Tom came down the street and said, "Come on, John, we'll be late," the gate opened with a slam and John was gone, captured by the voice of the tempter.

There are Johns and Marys all over the world that day after day are talking to themselves, or intently listening to the two voices that attempt to lead them either up toward the right, or out into the wrong. Voices so distinct and well defined, that the deafest ear may hear, and the dustiest intellect may comprehend.

The young man goes out from his boyhood home where his life has been so safely sheltered that its many temptations have never annoyed him. A mother's kiss is warm on his cheek, and a father's blessing lingers in his ear. His heart is full of love and good resolves, and with courage and brave determination, he takes up the battle for himself.

He has never known before what loneliness means, and with just a shade of homesickness, he leaves his quiet room and goes out for a stroll, to kill time. The busy streets, with brilliant lights and jostling crowd, where not a familiar face is seen, are more lonely to him than the great desert, and he realizes for the first time the value of companionship.

He stops at a theater entrance for a moment, and without knowing anything about the place, goes in with the crowd, to while away the evening. He soon discovers that it is a cheap variety entertainment, and a voice whispers to him, "Better not stay," while another voice says, "You've paid your money, stay half an hour anyway," and so, fascinated with the music, and the gay trappings of the place, he settles down, with a blush on his cheek as he thinks of the mother and sisters, whom he knows would be blushing for him, if they knew of his surroundings.

He leaves the place at midnight, with his ideals of purity and modesty shattered, and his regard for womanhood badly demoralized.

A voice whispers to him, "That was a poor place to spend an evening," and in the honesty of his heart he admits that it was, but the next night finds him there again. The voice of the tempter was too strong for him.

These two voices are as old as Adam. He had a talk with the tempter one morning in the garden and the tempter prevailed.

The Master, four thousand years later, met the same foe in the wilderness, and after listening to his many seductive proposals, possessed the strength to say, "Get thee behind Me, Satan."

Through His short eventful life to the day of His tragic death on the cross, He was victor over sin and the devil, and from the dawn of the resurrection to the present time, the Kingdom of God in the heart of man, has been an established kingdom. But the knowledge of this fact has not destroyed the other kingdom, or lessened in any degree the efforts of the arch enemy to hold and control the territory that He claims by birthright.

Men and women are coming to realize more and more, as christian enlightenment develops, that the Kingdom of God is within us, and that the inheritance blesses humanity in every land, everywhere. That every child, of whatever race or color, is a child of God's solicitude, and that whatever may be his environments, his aspirations for goodness and worship, however crude, are products of the God given kingdom.

While he does not realize it the voice of God whispers to the idol worshiper, "This is right, do the right," just as distinctly as it does to the christian worshiper, and the voice of Satan contends for his soul, with the same eager solicitude.

His notions of right and wrong may not agree with ours at all. There is a wide difference of opinion on this question in christian lands. Conscience, which is called the voice of God, speaking for His kingdom, tells him to do the right as he understands it, but what the right is, on many questions, is a matter of education and judgment. The German drinks beer as a beverage and prays to God as devoutly and with a great deal more common sense, than Carrie Nation displays when asking the Divine blessing on her hatchet. There is no question about the sincerity of the German, or the religious fanaticism of Mrs. Nation. They are both doing the right as they understand it, and are both conscientious.

In this christian land, where the tree of knowledge is supposed to be ripe with fruitage, we interpret truth very largely to accommodate our creeds, and every last one of them is supposed to be not only right, but the safest creed.

It is very fortunate for humanity, even in this land, that the Great God, who creates and preserves, is larger than all creeds, and that in His infinite wisdom and measureless love, He recognizes the battle ground of the human soul, and with a host that never falters or grows weary, encourages the weakest effort, with a still, small voice, when the hosts of Satan are clamoring for the mastery.

The voice of God is a distinctive voice, constantly pleading for the right. The voice of the devil is more pronounced, and as constantly suggesting or demanding the wrong. The battlefield of the human soul is human life. Happy the man or woman who listens to and obeys the voice of God, until obedience becomes a pleasure and sacrifice a delight.

The railroad attorneys at Madison are putting up some strong arguments against the proposed increase in taxes, using the governor's message as a text. The legislature will do well to study both the message and the arguments carefully before voting for the bills. Neither Governor LaFollette nor the legislature were elected to burden any class of property with taxes. What the people want is an equitable distribution.

TO CURE THE GRIP.

Advice of a Famous Physician.
First and foremost, rest. Take care of yourself. Your already weakened nerves want rest, and must have it. If the attack is severe go to bed and remain there. More fatalities result from neglect of this precaution than from any other cause. Eat sparingly. Your digestive organs are in no condition to take care of the large quantities of food. Drink plenty of pure cold water. It alays the fever, stimulates the kidneys to action and opens up the pores of the skin. Keep the bowels open with Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills. Take three doses of Dr. Miles' Nerve per day, and if you cannot sleep take an extra dose at bed time. To overcome the fever and to overcome the peculiar aches and pains of the grip, use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. They act quickly and effectually, and no bad effects result from their use. These remedies have been thoroughly tested more than a million times, and their efficiency is thoroughly established. They never fail to give relief.

Dr. Miles' Remedies can be found at any drug store, and they are sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle or package benefits or money refunded.

"I was given up to die from heart and nervous troubles caused by grip. Six bottles each of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve cured me."—Mrs. John Wolcott, Jefferson, Wis.

"Failing to find relief from the grip with old methods, I took Dr. Miles' Pain Pills, Nerve and Liver Pills and was permanently cured."—Gust. Egan, Jackson, Mich.

"I was in bed five weeks with the grip—nerves shattered, stomach and liver badly deranged. Was cured with Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills."—D. C. Walker, Hallsville, O.

Selected Speakers Will Try to Solve the Problem at Christ Church Tomorrow Night.

Christian Unity. It has been well and truly said that the leading thought in the religion of the twentieth century is Christian Unity. This is the subject to be considered at Christ church Sunday evening in the addresses to be made by laymen. The following ten-minute addresses are to be made:

HOME FOR LAWYERS

AT MERRILL, WIS.

Purchase of a Residence in That City as a Final Home for Indigent Attorneys.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 9.—The Wisconsin Lawyers' Home society has purchased a residence at Merrill, Wis., which it is proposed to transform into a home for indigent lawyers. Charles W. Gibson of Merrill has consented to act as manager of the home, which it is proposed to open to the lawyers of the country on July 1. The place that has been secured was the house of the late T. B. Scott, a millionaire lumberman. The house cost Mr. Scott $50,000 and is a stone building with twenty-two large rooms. It is surrounded by forty acres of beautifully laid out grounds.

It is the intention of the society not only to use the house but to build a number of cottages on the grounds. The society secured the property for $7,000. This was done through the people of Merrill who were anxious to secure the home.

OVERBURDENED.

The Egyptian woman looks greatly overburdened, and yet the physical burdens she carries will not compare with the burdens borne by many an American woman. There is no burden like the burden of disease. The woman who suffers from inflammation or ulceration, bearing-down pains, weak back and nervousness, bears a burden which crushes her very life.

Every woman should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It cures the womanly diseases which cause weakness and feebleness. It quiets the nerves, cures the aching back and throbbing head, and gives strength for wifely cares and maternal duties.

"When I first wrote to you I was in a bad condition and had almost given up," says Mrs. Della Salder, of Wilkesville, Vinton Co., Ohio. "I was suffering from female trouble of the worst kind. I couldn't eat anything without suffering great distress; throat hurt me by spells; was nervous and weak. Had numb hands and arms, heart trouble, pains all through my body and aching head and neck. I seemed that I could not work at all. I got Dr. Pierce's medicine and took it as directed, and the first week it began to help me. I took three bottles and am glad to say that it did me more good than all the other medicine I ever took. I feel better than I have for years."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only, or if cloth bound volume is desired, send 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"When the grip left me my nerves and heart were badly affected; but I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure and was soon all right."—Wm. Roericht, Eau Claire, Wis.

SEWERAGE QUESTION HAS BECOME A SERIOUS QUESTION TO FACE

Probability That the People Will Be Asked to Vote on It During the Coming Spring Election—Phases of the Matter.

The question of sewerage will in all probability be brought before the people at the coming spring election. It is not that a vote will be taken at that time to see whether or not the city will build a system of sewers but to see how the people feel on the subject.

The question of sewerage is one that is attracting more and more attention every day and grows in importance as the city grows.

There is hardly a meeting of the council nowadays that there is not some action taken on a petition of a number of residents in different parts of the city for permission to construct sewers.

While these sewers are a good thing for the people that put them in they have two serious drawbacks. The first is that none of them are constructed according to any organized system, so that they could be incorporated as a part of any system that the city might build. The second is that a large majority of them empty into the river at a point above or in the center of the business districts of the city.

The sewer question will soon become a serious problem for the city to face if the council continues to grant permits to private parties to build sewers on any plan or grade that they may see fit.

It is not at all unlikely that the parties that have already put in sewers will oppose the city sewerage. They have sewerage and that is all that is necessary. People who have lived in the city and have grown to old age without the benefits of sewerage also oppose the plan. They say we managed to get along without sewerage and there is no reason why the rest of the people cannot.

This sewerage question is one that cannot lightly be laid aside. It is growing stronger every day and the demand for sewerage is on the increase.

On the eastern side of the river where there is plenty of sand and gravel it is not much trouble for a house owner to construct a cess-pool that will answer every purpose so that sewers are not an absolute necessity. Up in the First ward where the rock comes to the surface in many places cess pools cannot be built and sewers are a crying necessity.

The city should adopt some system of sewerage and have plans drawn of a system that would answer every purpose. After adopting these plans no one should be allowed to construct a sewer unless it conformed with the plans adopted by the city and was built in such shape that it could be incorporated in the city plant at any time that they might see fit to build.

There are already about four miles of private sewers in this city and it is safe to say that not half of them could be used in the city plant.

By the plans prepared for the city by C. F. Loweth & Co. of St. Paul in 1892 two systems of sewerage are set forth. One is sanitary sewerage which takes care of all sewerage from houses, stores and factories; but makes no provision for the removal of storm water or surface drainage, which must be taken care of through separate sewers or by surface gutters. The other system is called the combined and makes provision for the removal of all liquid wastes from dwellings and other buildings and also of storm water or surface drainage, both together through the same channels. The relative size and cost of these two systems may be roughly compared when it is stated that from any given area the volume of water to be removed by the combined system of sewerage is several times that required by the sanitary system. For this reason a combined system of sewerage is several times more expensive than the other.

It is not necessary that the city put in a complete system of sewerage at one time. They can adopt some plan of sewerage and put in a portion at one time. Whatever work is done at one time must conform with the plans so that different portions of the work can be connected with a whole.

It might not be necessary at first to put in an intercepting sewer to carry the sewerage below the business portion of the town, but for a while it could be allowed to empty directly into the river. They should however be built on such a grade that at some future time an intercepting sewer could be built to carry off the refuse. Two different plans for building the system are under consideration. One is the building of the sewers on the streets where they are the most needed and demanded by the residents under the special assessment act, the city at large paying a certain proportion of the cost. The other is to build a complete system and bond the city to pay for it.

It would cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $250,000 to put in a complete system, planned by Loweth & Co. of St. Paul. No system of sewerage can be called complete as additions will have to be made from time to time as the city grows and outlying districts are settled up. The sewerage system at Rockford put in in 1898 cost as follows: 9-inch pipe, 38 cents per foot; 12-inch pipe, 59 cents per foot; and 15-inch 69 cents. Man holes $25 and lamp holes $5.

A great many people are in favor of sewerage and a great many more and chiefly those who have private sewers and those who are against public improvements on general principles will oppose it. A vote on the question will show how the people stand and will give the council something to go by in the future.

THOMAS J. O'HARA HAS PASSED AWAY

Died Late Yesterday Afternoon of a Lingering Illness of Almost Eight Months—Funeral Tomorrow.

Thomas J. O'Hara, a young man thirty eight years of age, passed away yesterday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of his brother, John D. O'Hara, 158 Cornelia street after a lingering illness of almost eight months duration. He was a painter by trade and while at work some two years ago fell from a ladder injuring his knee. The injury finally forced him to take to his bed and he gradually grew worse. About two months ago it was decided that the only hope of saving his life was to amputate the injured leg which was done. For a time it looked as if the operation would be a success, but his weakened system could not withstand the shock and he passed away yesterday afternoon.

Mr. O'Hara was born in 1863 and had lived the greater portion of his life in Janesville.

By his quiet disposition and many personal traits he had made for himself a large circle of friends who will be pained to hear of his death. He leaves surviving him three brothers, William, John D. and Daniel A. O'Hara.

The funeral services will be held from St. Mary's church on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Father W. A. Goshel will conduct the services. The interment will be at Mount Olivet cemetery.

The funeral will be held from her home in Monroe.

ST. PAUL BRIDGE CREW BEGIN WORK

Walter Collins, One of the Members of the Crew, Seriously Injured This Morning.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul gang arrived in this city last night, to begin work on the bridges along the line of the Janesville and Southeastern railroad. They will finish up the work left incompleting when the winter set in and will have everything at his end of the line in readiness for track laying when spring opens up. The work on this road will be pushed to completion at once and it is hoped by the railroad company to have trains running on schedule time by June 5.

The crew made a bad start on their work this morning and in consequence one of the men is in bed and is liable to remain there for some time.

Walter Collins, one of the men was working on a flat car, engaged in loading some heavy iron bed plates. The plate had been partly raised by the derrick, when one of the bolts in the clavice broke letting the plate drop. It struck on the car and Collins was thrown into the air as if he had been on a spring board. He fell to the ground, striking on the small of his back on one of the pile of bed plates and was unable to rise.

He was carried to Smith's hotel and Dr. Joe Whiting, the company's surgeon called to attend him. He found that no bones were broken but that he had sustained a number of severe bruises and internal injuries. He hopes to have him at work again in the course of a week or two.

It was a peculiar accident and might have resulted much more seriously for Collins.

Canton Janesville No. 9, held a very interesting session last evening and initiated a number of candidates into the order. A banquet was served immediately after the initiation and enjoyed by all.

WINSLOW GROCERY DESTROYED BY FIRE

The Building Was Completely Guttered, and the Stock Loss is Also Heavy—A Total Loss.

An alarm of fire turned in from box 313 at the corner of Wheeler and Oak streets at 3:11 o'clock this morning called the fire department to the grocery store of Edward Winslow on Wheeler street. The department responded in short order but could do little toward saving the building and its contents which are a total loss.

The fire was discovered by J. Youngblood who resides near the building and he immediately turned in the alarm. The fire started near the center of the building on the easterly side where the stove is located. In the cellar immediately under the stove was a fifty gallon tank of kerosene which caught fire and resisted all efforts of the department to extinguish it.

The building was the property of W. Robinson and was insured with J. H. Snyder in one of the companies represented by him. Mr. Winslow's loss is quite heavy. He had an insurance of $500 on his stock also with Mr. Snyder.

It is thought that he first started from a defective flue as everything was all right when the store was closed for the night.

...LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS...

REPORTED CRISIS IN CHINA.

British Government Thinks Situation Is Grave.

HOW FOREIGN POWERS STAND.

United States and Great Britain Said to Be Negotiating to Treat Russia—Washington People Think London Story Is Overdrawn.

London, March 9.—A crisis has arisen in far eastern affairs, which in the opinion of the British government is graver almost than the troubles which originally turned the eyes of the world toward the Orient. In this crisis secret negotiations are going on between the United States and Great Britain with a view of thwarting what both governments appear to consider a determined attempt on the part of Russia to plant herself permanently in one of the richest tracts of the Chinese empire. The conference held Wednesday between United States Ambassador Choate and Lord Lansdowne, the foreign secretary, had nothing to do with the Nicaragua canal affair. To quote from a British official, "The Nicaragua controversy is a minor matter compared with the present situation." What Choate did was to receive from Lord Lansdowne an important message declaring that Great Britain was not satisfied with Russia's declaration regarding Manchuria, as delivered to Sir Charles Stewart Scott, British ambassador at St. Petersburg, by Count Lamsdorf, and asking the United States if they were prepared to take joint action of such a decisive nature that Russia would have no alternative but to recede from her position. Almost simultaneously the United States government instructed the various ambassadors to take similar steps.

Hay's Answer Not Received.

The answer of Secretary Hay has apparently not yet been received in London, although the fact that almost concurrent instructions were issued from Washington is taken here to be a sufficient guarantee that Russia's action in Manchuria will not be tolerated by the United States. Japan is relied upon to take a line in harmony with the United States and Great Britain. Germany, in spite of the Anglo-German compact, is regarded as rather doubtful, owing to Emperor William's friendship for the czar. France, of course, will side with her ally. The significance of the present phase can be appreciated only by those cognizant of the lethargic attitude of the British government hitherto regarding Russian action in China. Within the last few days all this has been changed. What a week or two ago was pronounced only in line with Russia's usual policy is now termed "a grave and serious state of affairs." Lord Lansdowne is using every effort to bring the powers into line, in order to present to Russia such a menacing front that, without any ambiguity regarding temporary or other occupation, she may give up all designs upon Manchuria. What prompts the British foreign office to take such an alarmist view of circumstances usually looked upon as fatalistic sequences is the apprehension that Russia, having held her own in spite of the protest of the ministers of the powers to the Chinese government, and having put herself on record in the reply of Sir Charles Scott as determined on at least a temporary occupation of Manchuria, will refuse to back down.

LONDON STORY OVERDRAWN.

Denied at Washington That "Secret Negotiations" Are In Progress.
Washington, D. C., March 9.—Just to what extent our government has expressed itself to the other powers regarding the attitude of Russia in respect to the occupation of Manchuria and what, if anything, has been received from the British foreign office, would not be divulged by the officials here. Our government deems it inexpedient for the Chinese to make any independent arrangement with any foreign power while the peace negotiations are in progress at Peking. An identical note conveying these sentiments has been sent by the United States to each of the powers interested in the settlement of the conditions growing out of the Boxer troubles. The Chinese imperial government also has been made acquainted with these sentiments. The statement is made positively here tonight that the United States is not in "secret negotiations" with any other power regarding China. Our practice in dealing with the Chinese situation uniformly has been to make known the attitude of the United States to all the nations interested, and for this purpose identical notes have been sent to them when matters of great importance were under consideration. At the same time the intimation is conveyed that the London dispatches on the subject are overdrawn. So far as is known the United States was the first of the powers at Peking to erect a regular Chinese court of justice in the Chinese capital in place of the arbitrary military courts, which have been acting since the entrance of the allies into the city. The war department has just received a copy of an order issued by General Chaffee instituting "a Chinese criminal court of justice for that section of Peking policed by the United States troops. This court consists of one judge and one clerk, and the order names Chia Pao Whang as the first judge. It is required that the judge shall be a Chinaman. His jurisdiction extends over all Chinese offenders against Chinese inhabitants. The judge may sentence to death, to the whipping post, to money fine, to confinement, or to a peculiarly Chinese punishment—the carrying of the wood ring inside of the city limits. Persons may be condemned to death if they have participated in the Boxer movement and injured life and property, if they attack the foreign police, or if they are guilty of murder or attempt of murder, robbery, counterfeiting, "heavy looting," burglary, and rape, but no death sentence shall be executed without the approval of the commander of the United States forces. Ample provision is made in the order for the protection of rights of the prisoners. The expenses of the court are to be defrayed by the provost marshal from civil funds.

IT HURTS BRITISH DIGNITY.

Campbell-Bannerman on the House of Commons.

New York, March 9.—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, liberal leader in the house of commons, and John Redmond, the leader of the Irish party discuss the recent scenes in the house in special cable dispatches. The liberal leader says:

"Many circumstances of our life and condition of society rest upon physical force, which is a rather humiliating fact. The rules of the house of commons, which usually work so quietly, equally rest for ultimate authority on force. It seems to me that the display of force the other night was repulsive to the feelings of every one of us and certain not to add to the dignity and credit of the house."

"The introduction into the house of a body of police struck a heavy blow at our dignity. Legal, not physical force, should be employed in future and members would then obey without a murmur. Their ideas of their independence would then be vindicated. By suspending members for the whole session the government practically disfranchises their constituencies."

Redmond's Answer.

Mr. Redmond says: "The enactment of a penal provision such as suspending members in what professes to be a free assembly is a hateful, degrading proceeding. In consequence of the hurried application of closure on Tuesday night there was a natural ebullition of feeling on the part of Irishmen. I give my unqualified and absolute denial that it was premeditated."

"The whole moral responsibility for what occurred rests on Balfour. No government ever gained by parliamentary sharp practice. Such attempts recoil on those who use them. Year by year parliament has been lowered and degraded."

"After robbing Ireland of her parliament, having compelled us to come across the water to an English parliament, it is some consolation to Irishmen that the price to be paid is so high and bitter a one."

Redmond's fighting Irish members scored heavily in the house of commons at 2 o'clock this morning when an unprecedented vote of 426 to 0 the house barred Lord Hugh Cecil's proposal to imprison hereafter all unruly members. Lord Cecil is the son of Lord Salisbury.

HELP FOR WOMEN

WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED.

"I do not feel very well, I am so tired all the time, I do not know what is the matter with me."

You hear these words every day; as often as you meet your friends just so often are these words repeated. More than likely you speak the same significant words yourself, and no doubt you do feel far from well most of the time.

Mrs. Ella Rice, of Chelsea, Wis., whose portrait we publish, writes that she suffered for two years with bearing-down pains, headache, backache, and had all kinds of miserable feelings, all of which was caused by falling and inflammation of the womb, and after doctoring with physicians and numerous medicines she was entirely cured by

MRS. ELLA RICE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are troubled with pains, fainting spells, depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere, headache, backache, and always tired, please remember that there is an absolute remedy which will relieve you of your suffering as it did Mrs. Rice. Proof is monumental that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest medicine for suffering women. No other medicine has made the cures that it has, and no other woman has helped so many women by direct advice as has Mrs. Pinkham; her experience is greater than that of any living person. If you are sick, write and get her advice; her address is Lynn, Mass.

CUBAN DUTY IS CUT OFF.

The Export Rate on Tobacco Ends April 1.

GEN. WOOD APPROVES ACTION.

Done on Belief That Revenues Are Sufficient Without It—Loss of Revenue Will Be Offset by Encouragement to Planters in Cuba.

Washington, D. C., March 9.—The president has issued an executive order abolishing the Cuban export duty on tobacco from April 1 next. This action was taken on the earnest recommendation of the Cuban economic commission, which recently visited Washington, and endorsed by Gen. Wood. A previous order had been issued fixing an export duty of 50 per cent on Cuban tobacco from April 1. Today's action removes the export duty entirely. Gen. Wood's approval of the abolition of this export duty is practically an expression of his belief that the Cuban revenues from other sources are sufficient for the needs of the insular government. The original idea was that the tobacco tax was necessary to fully meet the financial requirements of the government. The abolition of duty affects cigars and cigarettes as well as tobacco in leaf, filler or cut, all of the various classes of tobacco, raw and manufactured, having heretofore been subject to various rates of duty.

Loss of Revenue Is Heavy.

It is estimated by the war department officials that the abrogation of the tobacco duties will cause a loss of revenue of about $300,000 or $1,000,000 per year. But it is said that this loss will be more than offset by the encouragement given to the planters in Cuba to increase their production. The extent of the trade affected by the order is very large, the tobacco exports amounting to about $20,000,000 a year. Of this, by far the larger part came to the United States. The total value of unmanufactured tobacco exported within the seven months ended July 21 last was $5,020,000, and of this the export to the United States amounted to $4,875,000. In the same period the export of Cuban cigars was largest to Great Britain, the United States coming second. The total value of the cigar exports for the seven months was $6,020,000.

Will Investigate Col. Heistand.

Lieut.-Col. H. O. Heistand of the army will be investigated by a subcommittee from the committee on military affairs of the senate, to ascertain his relations with an alleged combine organized to control the hemp industry in the Philippines. The subcommittee was appointed today, and will begin work at once, under a resolution which Mr. Pettigrew of South Dakota introduced, and which was adopted on the 1st instant, reciting that Col. Heistand is accused of combining with other government officials to control the output of hemp.

New Extrajudicial Offenses.

A supplemental treaty, making obtaining money under false pretenses, the destruction or obstruction of railroads, the endangering of human life and the procuring of abortions extrajudicial offenses, between the United States and Great Britain, was ratified by the senate today.

Extends French Treaty.

The life of the French reciprocity treaty has been extended to March 24, 1902. The protocol carrying this extension will be submitted to the senate before adjournment tomorrow, and be adopted as an encouragement to the French government, and for the effect it will have in preventing trade discrimination or retaliation.

Scandal in an Observatory.

A scandal has developed at the United States naval observatory in this city. Charges have been preferred by the superintendent, Capt. Charles H. Davis, against Prof. Stimson J. Brown, director of the nautical almanac, who has the rank of captain in the navy. A court of inquiry will be ordered, and a court-martial may follow.

Denmark Has Not Been Warned.

There is absolutely no truth in the story telegraphed from London that the United States had served notice upon Denmark that the Danish West Indies could not be sold or transferred to any other government except this.

Nominations by the President.

The president sent the following nominations to the senate: Consuls—Frank C. Dennis of Maine, at St. John's, N. F.; Ernest A. Mann of Florida, at Breslau, Germany; Martin J. Carter of Pennsylvania, at Yarmouth, N. S. To be secretary of the legation to Guatemala and Honduras, Robert H. Greene of Kentucky. To be secretary of the legation at Constantinople, Turkey, Philip M. Brown of Massachusetts. The senate confirmed these nominations.

Soldiers Fight in Highwood Bar.

Highwood, Ill., March 9.—Drunken soldiers from Fort Sheridan started a riot at Highwood, during which a saloon was badly damaged and one recruit seriously beaten. Last night ten armed deputy marshals patrolled the streets of Highwood to prevent a repetition of the trouble. Two hundred or more soldiers from the fort were in the village till late at night.
